Stalinism is a totalitarian, economically far-left ideology inhabiting the top left corner of the political compass. Stalinism is considered to be culturally conservative by detractors because of his opposition to LGBT rights, praise for traditional gender roles and brief revival of the Russian Orthodox Church. Some adherents and detractors of Stalinism dispute this with material conditions ...

This is a list of totalitarian regimes. The list distinguishes between totalitarian and authoritarian regimes, listing the former and not the latter. Totalitarianism is an extreme version of authoritarianism. Authoritarianism primarily differs from totalitarianism in that social and economic institutions exist that are not under governmental control.
